IN MY BLOOD IT RUNS

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17 @ 11 A.M. ON ZOOM

Join us for a free screening of the POV Documentary In My Blood it Runs directed by Maya Newell. The film was produced by Sophie Hyde, Rachel Naninaaq Edwardson, and Larissa Behrendt.

Ten-year-old Djujan is an Arrernte Aboriginal child-healer and a good hunter and speaks three languages. Yet Djujan is failing in school and facing increasing scrutiny from Australian welfare authorities and the police. As he veers perilously close to incarceration, his family fights to give him a strong Arrernte Aboriginal education alongside his western education. We walk with him as he grapples with these pressures and shares his truths.

RSVP via the library calendar at cplevents.org to receive the zoom link for this event.

This event is a collaboration with POV, the award-winning independent non-fiction film series on PBS. www.pbs.org/pov
